

himself successfully in business being Cashier of the local Prudential office, as socially he has made many friends. He will take his bride on a wedding visit to his relatives in Mississippi.

The engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Julia Dudley and Dr. Richard Duke was made known formally on Saturday at a luncheon given by Miss Mary Richardson in honor of Miss Dudley. The wedding will take place at Christ Church on Tuesday evening, Nov. 21, and will be followed by a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guilford Dudley, in the Murphy Addition.

The congratulations that have been extended Miss Dudley and Dr. Duke for the past few months, since their engagement became known, will be renewed now with increased cordiality. Both are very popular in the inner circle of society, and the family friends are many on both sides.

Miss Dudley is the daughter of Guilford Dudley and sister of Mrs. Johnson Bransford. Her amability and charm have been distinguishing traits of a well rounded character. Dr. Duke is the son of Dr. and Mrs. William C. Duke, and professionally has a bright and successful career opening before him.

Miss Richardson's luncheon, at which the announcement was made, was an appropriately interesting and charming hospitality. The guests seated around the table with the hostess and the honoree were: Miss Mary Ann Robinson, Miss Lu Una Black, Miss Laura Stratton, Miss Elizabeth Thomas, Miss Katie Dean Hutcheon, Miss Bessie Duke, Misses Edna and Anne Richardson, Mrs. Verner Moore Lewis and Mrs. A. W. Harris.

The table was decorated in white and gold, with a centerpiece of golden "showers" blooms massed in a silver pitcher, and with yellow-shaded lights and table dainty accessories.

The pretty hostess, whose marriage will take place one week before that of the honoree, appeared in a gown of lavender flowered organdie, trimmed with insertions of lace.

Miss Dudley wore a white lingerie gown.

Invitations have been received in Nashville from Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Martin, of Grandview, Tex., to the marriage of their daughter, Mary Eleanor, and John Stevens Douglas on Wednesday, Oct. 11, at 8 o'clock at the family home.

The date for the wedding of Miss Louise Pernet and Clifford M. Bosworth has been changed from Nov. 8 to Nov. 7. It will take place in the evening at Christ Church and the guest list will be limited.

Miss Ida Thompson has returned home.

Among the guests who will spend several days at Wessington at the time of the wedding of Miss Anne Washington and Augustus S. Blanga, of Washington, are Mrs. William Henry Lee, Fitzhugh Lee and Hon. R. E. Lee, Jr., of Virginia. The bride's brother, Joseph E. Washington, Jr., will reach Wessington next Sunday, and will spend a week at home.

Miss Emma Spencer, after summering with her father's relatives on Lake Champlain, and visiting Mrs. James M. Head, in Brookline, Mass., is now at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Richard M. Dorsey, 147 Jerolemon street, in Brooklyn, where she will remain until late in the winter. In her honor, recently army friends on Governor's Island and at the navy yard have entertained handsomely, and other courtesies are planned.

Miss Mary Porter Wilson will give a linen shower Thursday afternoon, in honor of Miss Rebel Staley.

Miss Florence Puryear will winter with Miss Medora Glaze, at her flat in the Vauxhall.

J. C. Hibbitt, Sr., has returned from Scottsville, where he spent two weeks.

Mrs. M. B. Pileher will arrive from Montecarlo on Tuesday and take possession of her new residence in the Murphy Addition. Mrs. Reuben E. Fink and son will follow her on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Pileher, Jr., are already established in their pretty new home.

Miss Mala L. Muse has returned from Asheville, N. C., and is at home for the winter.

Prof. John H. Biller, formerly of Louisville, has just returned to his home in Nashville after a week's stay with his mother and family. He went to attend the wedding of his youngest sister, Miss Theresa Henrietta Biller, to William A. Funk, which took place at the residence of his sister, Mrs. Mary Victoria Hellmann, 2339 Payne street, Clifton. Miss Adelaide Biller, eldest daughter of Prof. John H. Biller, niece of the bride, was maid of honor, and John Hillebrich was best man. Two little nieces of the bride were flower girls. The bride was beautifully gowned in white net over chiffon and carried a large bouquet of bride roses. The maid of honor wore a gown of white organdy and lace and carried a lovely bouquet of pink roses and carnations. The flower girls were dressed in white embroidery, with pink sashes, and carried little baskets of flowers. The ceremony took place at 4:30 o'clock at St. Francis, Rome Church, the Rev. Father Th. White officiating. Afterward a wedding supper was served to nearly seventy-five guests. The table and house were decorated with flowers, ferns and palms. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful presents. The evening was spent with music, singing and dancing. Miss Adelaide Biller will for the present remain the guest of her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Hellmann, who will entertain in her honor.

Miss Elizabeth W. Goodall has returned from Columbia, where she visited Miss Florence Shelton and Mrs. W. P. Morgan.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. W. Sweeney and daughter leave this week for New York to stay two weeks.

The Virginia Society will meet in October with Capt. M. B. Toney. The date will be the latter part of the month.

Miss Grace Handy will entertain on Wednesday with a 6 o'clock dinner in honor of Prof. Ernest Boyd, of Cookeville. Eight guests will be invited. Miss Handy will be assisted by her sisters, Misses Martha and Annie Handy. After dinner the entire party will compose a box party at the Vendome to see "The County Chairman."

Mrs. Ben Harvey, of Arizona, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hughes.

Mrs. A. G. Donoho, Jr., and daughter, Mary Neal, are visiting in Nashville.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Wilson and Mrs. B. F. Wilson are still in New York, and will return on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. John M. Gray, Jr., will leave Sunday to join Miss Ida Wilson, in New York.

Mrs. F. F. Reese and daughters, Misses Ella and Agnes, are at home after summering at Seawane, and are established in their new home, corner of Clark Place and Clark Place, South (Etnell avenue). Miss Louise Reese is visiting her sister, Mrs. Craighill, in Gainesville, Fla.

Mrs. Metta G. Travis, of Union City, is the guest of Miss Medora Glaze.

Otho Cannon, of Murfreesboro, was in Nashville on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Jackson, Miss Eunice Jackson and Nat Baxter will return on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Jackson will occupy their West End home this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Morton B. Howell and Misses Elizabeth and Rachel Howell have returned from Beersheba.

The Woman's Historical Association met Saturday afternoon with Mrs. A. W. Wilks, the fascinating weather forecasting meeting at the History Building in Centennial Park. Arrangements were made for the open meeting at the History Building two weeks hence, when each member will be privileged to bring a guest. Mrs. Wilks read a sketch of William Edward West, the artist, who is buried at the City Cemetery. Two new members were elected, Mrs. Norman Farrell and Mrs. Ross Handy.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Blankenship have left for Hartsville, where they will make their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Hirsch announces the engagement of their daughter, Ray, to I. Kriesman, of Florence, Ala. They will be at home to their friends this afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. James E. McGriff and son, Owen, have returned after two weeks' sojourn at Red Boiling Springs.

Mrs. Josephine Corder and family have gone to New York to spend the winter with relatives.

Mrs. Cora Clark Scroggs, assisted by Mrs. George M. Green, at their home on Tenth avenue, South, gave a farewell reception Thursday evening complimentary to Mrs. John Walston Martin, whose marriage of July 30 was only recently announced. The popularity of the bride was attested by numerous and beautiful presents. Music and dancing entertained a party of guests of about thirty for several hours and later a buffet supper was served, the color scheme of green and white being carried out in decoration and leas. Mr. and Mrs. Martin left for their future home, Florence, Ala., on Saturday.

Mrs. J. Washington Moore and family are visiting relatives near Brentwood.

Miss Mary Lee Pope, of Pulaski, is expected here to visit Miss Elise Hadley on the Franklin road.

Miss Eleanor Brooks and Miss Hattie Kingsinger have returned to their homes in Springfield, Mo., after a visit to Miss Orlean Brandon at Dover and at the Maxwell House, during which they were frequently entertained and very much admired. Gen. and Mrs. Brandon and Miss Brandon are at the Maxwell.

Mr. and Mrs. John Peebles returned Friday night to their home in Portsmouth, O., after spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Allen. Among other social courtesies extended Mrs. Peebles during her stay was a luncheon given on Friday by Mrs. Joseph H. Thompson, at which twelve ladies were invited to meet her, and the appointments were appropriately handsome.

Mrs. Thomas S. Weaver and Richard Weaver are at home after six weeks' stay in the Northwest.

Dr. and Mrs. Henry P. Loftis and daughter, Miss Edna, of Gainesboro, are visiting relatives in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Tyree Rodes and Miss Sara Louise Rodes have taken possession of their picturesque home in Belmont Place, although it will not be entirely completed for several weeks. It is colonial in style, and is one of the most attractive of the city's new residences.

Mrs. Edward J. McGavock arrived Saturday night from Staunton, Va., where she spent most of the summer with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Marcus Dennison Rusgether at the Morgan cottage. Mrs. M. B. Pileher chaperoned them during the closing days of their stay. Miss Phelps will be the guest of Miss Mary G. Morgan for the rest of the week.

Mrs. Dorsey C. Pierce has bought an attractive home on the corner of Villa street and Grand avenue, and will have with her daughter, Miss Jennie Houston Pierce, and Mr. and Mrs. Jerome B. Sand and little daughter, Mary Elizabeth.

Mr. and Mrs. William M. Duncan are with Miss Sallie Duncan, on Vauxhall Place.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Percy Rains have returned from a visit to the Portland Exposition, stopped in Philadelphia for a stay of several weeks.

Mrs. George A. Washington and son and Miss Marina Bell will return Wednesday from Seawane, where they spent the summer.

Miss Elizabeth Dallas will spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. H. Blair Smith.

Mrs. Will J. Cummins and the Misses Cummins left Saturday night for New York, where Misses Mary Sue and Lena Cummins will enter the Finch School.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Baird will be in the city this winter, in a home on Hoscobei street, and have leased their farm on the Murfreesboro road.

Mrs. L. R. Ams, whose husband was formerly pastor of Arlington Church, on the Murfreesboro road, will remove here from Columbia, where she has lived since his death, and will be located on Sixteenth avenue this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Martin and Miss Marion Martin left Friday night for Washington, where the latter will enter a finishing school, and Mr. and Mrs. Martin will go from there to New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Lindenberg have returned from their wedding trip to Canada, and are at the Holland House, in New York.

Mrs. John Frierson and children, Frances Adelaide and John Stephenson Frierson III, of Mt. Pleasant, are spending the week end with Mr. and Mrs. John Kuhm in the Polk.

Misses Eliza and Charity Vaughan have returned to their home in Mobile, after visiting Mrs. Finley M. Dorris in the Polk.

Mrs. R. O. Tucker, who has been visiting in Algood, will return home tomorrow night.

Miss Evelyn Watkins, of Columbia, has been a guest the past week at Ward Seminary, where her sister, Miss Louise Watkins, is entered.

Mrs. Florence G. Wakeman and daughter, Margaret, of Chattanooga, after a trip to Cleveland and Cincinnati, are visiting Mrs. Wakeman's mother, Mrs. Gribble, of Laurel street.

Mrs. Andrew Woods and Miss Mary Woods will be with Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Kirkpatrick on McGavock street this winter.

Miss Elise Lipscomb will return Tuesday from Beersheba, where she summered.

Miss Myra McGavock returned Friday morning from Canada, where she spent the summer. Miss M. L. Goodwyn and Miss Eunice Smith followed her home a day later.

Miss Elizabeth Branham will be with Mrs. Will Dismukes on West Broad street this winter.

Mrs. Will D. Thomas has taken possession of her new home, 1716 West End avenue.

Miss Edna Richardson returned Friday from Montecarlo.

MISS LUCY ECKEL, OF KNOXVILLE,
Guest of Miss Elizabeth Haynie, Who Has Been Frequently Entertained
During Her Stay in the City.

(Photo by Thuss.)

sell. She will be the guest of her sister, Mrs. Alex G. Hunter, at her home in the Murphy Addition for a week. Mr. McGavock, who has been for some time at his plantation in Arkansas, will join her here. Mrs. Russell will go to New York in a few days to be with an Eastern friend most of the winter, and they contemplate a trip abroad.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Nelson will leave this week for Chicago, and other Northwestern cities.

Misses Irene and Sara Morgan, Mary and Effie Morgan and Katherine Phelps will return Tuesday from Montecarlo, where they have spent two weeks tosition, going over the Northern Pacific route, and making stops at Seattle, Spokane and Tacoma. Returning they came via California to San Francisco, Los Angeles, and thence through Salt Lake City and Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cain, who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel G. Douglas, on Fourth street since their return from New York, will go to Seawane to-day to visit Mr. Cain's sister, Mrs. Hazden A. West.

Mrs. George H. Armistead and daughter, Miss Jessie Parkes Armistead, returned to Franklin Saturday after visiting Mrs. Goulding Marr.

Mrs. Mercer P. Logan and daughters returned Saturday morning from a visit to their former home in Virginia.

Miss Lucy Haynie, of Gallatin, has been the guest of Miss Laura Stratton the past week.

Dr. and Mrs. George W. Hale and Mr. and Mrs. Whiteford R. Cole and son will return home tomorrow from the Northwest, where they summered.

Messrs. A. B. Hill and Will R. Manier will leave tomorrow for a fishing trip to Walling.

Miss Martha Cornelius is in Chicago to spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. Robert J. Woods. While there she will study music.

Mrs. James E. Caldwell has returned from Battle Creek.

Miss Manie Burroughs has returned to McMinnville, after visiting her aunt, Mrs. H. C. Wright. She will go to Washington, D. C., this week to enter Fairmount College.

Harry Jones, of McMinnville, visited his sister, Mrs. B. C. Wright, the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Trimble have taken possession of the Condon house, on Hayes street.

Hon. M. T. Bryan returned Friday from New York, where he spent a week. His daughter, Miss Marie Bryan, and her cousin, Miss Campbell, who were with